Week-End Car Crashes Kill 1 As Many Hurt

Four People Injured In 2 Redwood City Auto Accidents

Week-end traffic accidents in San Mateo county cost the life of one man, while injuries were incurred by a number of other motorists. Two serious accidents happened in Redwood City.

The dead man is John McGregor, 50, formerly of Stockton. He had been at Tanforan with a horse, Kislav, in which he held an interest. He was fatally hurt at 3 a. m. Sunday when he was struck by the car of Mrs. Betty Ketner of San Francisco while he was attempting to cross El Camino Real at the Junipero Serra intersection near Colma. He died at 6 o'clock in the Villa Sanitarium.

P. A. COUPLE HURT

In a crash on the Bayshore highway at the Brewster street intersection at 1 a. m. Sunday, John F. Storey of 800 Hamilton avenue, Palo Alto, incurred a possibly fractured back and his wife suffered severe lacerations on her left leg and a possibly injured back when their car overturned after going off the edge of the highway and skidding 90 feet, according to reports made to local police. The pair were taken to the Palo Alto Hospital.

STANFORDITES INJURED

In the other local crash, Frank K. Shallenberger, Stanford engineering student, suffered cuts on his face and head and Miss Shelley Smith, daughter of the late Professor and Mrs. Everett W. Smith of Stanford, was bruised and cut when their machine was wrecked on Main street at Beech. The accident happened at 4 a. m. Sunday. Police were told that in an effort to avoid being hit by a machine coming on the wrong side of the street, the driver of the car, Marshall Herron, Palo Alto store clerk, swerved to the left, hit the curb, struck a railroad sign post, breaking it off, and crashed into a tree.

3 HURT IN MILLBRAE

At Millbrae at 1:50 p. m. Sunday, slight injuries were suffered by Mrs. E. Williamson, 26; Richard Williamson, 4, and James E. Conroy, 44, all of San Francisco, when machines driven by Conroy and Wilbur MacDonald, 28, of San Francisco, collided on El Camino Real. The injured were treated at South San Francisco Hospital.

In a head-on crash in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, Anabelle Collett, 19, of San Mateo, was one of six injured. The others were all from San Francisco.

3 HURT IN MENLO PARK

Patrick Ford, San Francisco advertising man, was in the Palo Alto Hospital today suffering a possible skull fracture and lacerations of his head and neck as the result of an accident on Santa Cruz avenue, near Holy Cross Cemetery in Menlo Park, at 9 o'clock last night. Two other San Francisco men riding with Ford were slightly hurt in the crash, which happened when the machine failed to negotiate a sharp curve and turned over.

At the age of 70, William Moore of Kernville, Cal., has cut a tunnel through rock, more than 80 feet in length to intercept an expected gold ledge.

San Diego Host As Fair Opens

F. R. Greeting Tonight Awaited to Climax Day's Activity

SAN DIEGO, May 29 (AP)—This little southwestern city which dared in the face of great odds to stage a $15,000,000 world's fair with half a year of preparation, today opened its California Pacific Exposition.

Shortly before noon, on the historic grounds of Balboa Park the gates of the international show were swung wide that the world may come and see written therein a story of progress which covers four centuries and reaches deep into the future.

With hotels overflowing and a heavy stream of traffic moving in, 50,000 persons were expected to participate in the opening ceremonies that move to a climax this evening when Pres. Franklin D. Roosevelt, from his study in the White House, will address the throng.

400 YEARS AGO

It was almost 400 years ago that Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo's two high-sterned galleons limped into San Diego bay to claim western United States for Spain.

In a setting of semi-tropical trees overlooking this historic bay has been written the story of advancement. The exposition has been built for the pleasure and edification of an expected tourist throng of ten million people.

FOURTEEN MILES

The show stretches over 14 winding miles of exhibits and pleasure palaces housed in buildings of Spanish architecture scattered through 300 acres of landscaped gardens.

The inaugural festivities have called together here a host of national, state and local celebrities, including Daniel Roper, secretary of commerce; William Phillips, undersecretary of state, and Gov. Frank F. Merriam, who will take active part in the ceremonies.

Driver Who Sped Past Woman Here Now Facing Suit

When Miss Madeline Fretz of Los Altos "whizzed" by her in an automobile at Redwood City, December 1, Mrs. Jean Kelly was frightened and later she suffered a nervous break-down.

Such is the allegation in Mrs. Kelly's $16,000 damage suit on file against Miss Fretz in superior court in San Jose today.

Her physical system was shocked so severely, Mrs. Kelly complains, that her metabolism became affected so as to cause a change in the composition of her blood and excessive nose hemorrhages.

Joining with her in the suit is her husband, James R. Kelly. The defendants besides Miss Fretz, the driver of the car, are Ellen Story Fretz, Paul Fretz and Mrs. Paul Fretz.

Representing the Kellys is Attorney Otto G. Kuklinski of San Francisco.

A railroad company in England runs what is called a "whitewash special." The train carries no passengers, but is equipped to note every jolt and bump on the track. As a bump is hit, a splash of whitewash is dropped on the ground to mark the spot for repair crews.

$2,000,000 LIVESTOCK PLANT FOR PENINSULA REPORTED TO BE NEAR

South San Francisco Will Become Chicago Of West, Is Prediction; Peninsula's Share to Be Only $15,000

Creation of a $2,000,000 San Francisco-San Mateo County Live Stock Exposition at Visitacion Valley just on the northern county line is nearing reality, Attorney W. H. Morrissey of Redwood City, one of the original sponsors of the project, revealed today.

Morrissey appealed today to County Executive Walter Kellogg to place $15,000 into the 1935-36 budget as San Mateo county's full share of the development. Kellogg gave the project his hearty support.

Funds for the development will come or have already been pledged from the following sources:

(1) $250,000 from the State of California.

(2) $250,000 from the City of San Francisco.

(3) $250,000 from civic leaders of San Francisco.

(4) $199,000 from the PWA.

(5) $ 15,000 from San Mateo county.

$964,000

In addition, there is pending before the state legislature AB 754 which will allocate $1,000,000 of federal relief funds to the San Francisco-San Mateo district. This money would come from the $24,000,000 allocated by the federal government to the state to be expended on projects selected by the legislature.

The district already has title to 55 acres of land straddling the two counties.

Holding of the international livestock show in San Francisco and San Mateo counties, according to C. H. Sooy of San Francisco, president of Agriculture District No. 1-A, will bring in an estimated $1,500,000 annually of outside money.

The track is also expected to return a revenue of $150,000 from pari-mutuel bets to be made as part of the racing features which will be similar to the state fair race program.

14½-ACRE BUILDING

Plans call for a $1,500,000 building to cover 14½ acres, to be 10 stories in height, and to seat 12,000 persons without obstructing a single patron's view by pillar or post.

It will house 1,000 swine, 1,000 sheep, 2,000 head of cattle and 600 head of horses. A half-mile trotting track and steel grandstand are also part of the plan.

Exhibitors will be on hand from all over the world, Sooy declares, and San Francisco will become the second livestock section of the world, with only Chicago ahead of it. San Francisco and San Mateo counties already are the livestock center of the west, and livestock is rated as the second industry of California.

TO WIN PART OF FAIR

Sooy sees the locating of the livestock department, racing, horse shows, international polo and like events of the 1938 World's Fair at the peninsula site because of their extent and the lack of facilities on the Yerba Buena shoals for this purpose.

This means that throughout the year 1938 the exposition buildings will be in full use. During other years, international shows will be held yearly or semi-annually, according to Sooy and Morrissey.

Morrissey points out in support of the $15,000 item that the plant will be located in San Mateo county and its contribution will indicate the peninsula's support of the project. Otherwise, he said, the entrance to the exposition may be located in San Francisco county and the peninsula would be cut off from full benefits.

DIRECTORS LISTED

Morrissey was president of the San Mateo County Federation of Improvement Clubs and Associations when the project was first sponsored three or four years ago. He will appear before the legislature tomorrow in behalf of the project.

Peninsula directors of the project include R. B. Henderson, president of the Pacific Portland Cement Company; Robert P. Holliday, former San Francisco publisher; Thomas L. Hickey, former supervisor, and Charles S. Howard, automobile magnate, while San Francisco directors are R. W. Krobitzsch, George Giannini, Ernest Drury and Sooy.

$50,000 Pledge May Be Unmet By Supervisors

County Board Charges S. F. Also Breaks Its Agreements

Strong possibility that San Mateo county might refuse to pay the $50,000 pledged toward the $665,000 Sunnyvale airbase purchase was foreseen Monday after two supervisors expressed dissatisfaction with San Francisco's promises of the past.

Leland Cutler of Woodside, prominent San Francisco civic leader, who as president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce in 1931 secured the $50,000 pledge, appealed in person today to the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors to meet the debt.

'AGREEMENT BROKEN'

Cutler was answered by Supervisor John Poole, Redwood City, with the statement that San Francisco had not lived up to its promises to secure employment of San Mateo county men on the Sunnyvale project.

Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, next charged that San Francisco had also assertedly broken its promises on the construction of the San Francisco County Jail at San Bruno. In the latter case, Witt said the permit hinged upon San Mateo county men securing employment on the work. Witt charged that San Francisco was not sincere in its promises and had failed to give San Mateo county "a square deal."

FERRELL GIVES RULING

Cutler, in answering Poole, said he had no recollection of promising to secure employment of San Mateo county men on the Sunnyvale project other than the usual efforts to ask contractors not to bring in men from the outside areas. The Sunnyvale project, he said, was baywide in scope.

Poole, however, said he had a "distinct recollection" of the agreement and that when he and former Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey went to San Jose to have labor leaders there enforce it they were "all but thrown out," he said.

District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell informed the board that he "could find nothing in the nature of a legal committment that would obligate the board legally to pay the $50,000." The San Francisco chamber agrees there is no legal binding.

Upon motion of Supervisor Walter High, Burlingame, seconded by Supervisor Witt, the matter was put off for one week.

Stout Leaves No Will For $10,000 Estate

Samuel Tallman Stout, pioneer stage driver who died Saturday morning and who was buried here yesterday afternoon, left no will to dispose of his estate, valued at "less than $10,000," according to a petition for probate of will filed in superior court today by Coroner William Crosby as public administrator through Attorney Joseph J. Bullock.

Only heir of Stout is a sister, Mary Newbern of Vallejo, according to the petition, which states she waived the right to administer the estate in favor of Coroner Crosby.

John Furrer Burned In Powder Explosion

SAN MATEO, May 29 — John Furrer, 40, Millbrae woodsman, was in the county hospital at San Mateo today with second degree burns on his face, arms, and chest, incurred when rock gunpowder, which he was transferring from one can to another yesterday, exploded. His condition was reported as serious. A. R. Brown, Furrer's companion, was unhurt.

Minority Bloc Keeping Scott In Post: Witt

Claim on Colma Sewer Work Brings Plea For Jury Quiz

Charging "neglect or incompetency" to County Engineer Carl Scott, Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, Monday failed in demanding a grand jury investigation of the Colma drainage and other projects handled by the engineering office.

Witt's action came after A. R. Moniz, Colma, had presented a formal claim against the County of San Mateo for $2,000 for crops ruined when waters of Colma creek, which had been diverted, overflowed a newly - constructed ditch during recent heavy rains.

The Colma supervisor also charged alleged waste of funds in the rebuilding of the Granada and Moss Beach sewers so that funds were not sufficient to cover the Montara system as well.

BLOCKED BY BEER

Witt's demand for the jury probe was blocked by Supervisor Fred Beer, San Mateo, and John Poole, Redwood City, who moved and seconded that the $2,000 claim be referred to District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell for a ruling and that the proper ourse be suggested.

The Colma spokesman then charged that Beer and Poole were responsible for keeping Scott in office after the majority sought to remove him and appoint Urban S. Marshall to "correct their earlier error."

Witt recalled that both Beer and Poole were opposed to Scott originally and could now, by either one of them changing their stand, give the necessary four-fifths vote to oust Scott.

The Colma Creek project was referred to by Witt as a "folly" of former Engineer James S. James. Witt accused Scott of alleged neglect in not taking care of the storm waters. The flood washed away crops which Moniz had planted.

SEWER MENACE PROBED

Witt called upon Giles B. Johnson of Montara to give a history of the sewer work done in Granada, Moss Beach and Montara. He said $15,135.43 was expected from SERA funds and that $6,230 more would be required to complete the project.

Johnson said the engineering plans were for a sewer system "good enough for San Francisco" and much more than Montara and the other sections had requested. Witt then charged that funds had been wasted or the money would have covered all necessary work.

Airplanes To Show Motion Pictures In Near Future

With the objective of providing entertainment for airplane passengers who, in the near future, will be flying the stratosphere or over long ocean routes, the Boeing School of Aeronautics at Oakland is completing moving picture projection tests. H. R. Brentlinger, maintenance engineer at the school, after test flights, announces that the development of the projector is a certainty.

Though sound motion pictures have been shown in airplanes on two occasions in the past, the experiments were staged more as a stunt with no effort toward practical development, Brentlinger explains. But with stratosphere and ocean flying a certainty during the next few years, he believes a light weight, portable projection machine will be an indespensable part of the big transport equipment.

Working in conjunction with Edwin L. Bauer, Brentlinger has made several tests in the air using a small Simplex portable, chosen because of its safety factors. In their experiments from 500 to 600 pounds of storage batteries were used to ascertain minimum power requirements.

To test the reaction of the pictures on an audience, six passengers were carried in one flight staged Sunday, March 17. As the flight progressed power was increased and decreased through the projector and passengers made notes as a final check. The test flight was made in a Ford trimotor transport training ship of the school.

With the completion of these tests Brentlinger is now constructing a special projector of lightweight materials which will derive its power from a wind plant generator. Students at the Boeing school are assisting in the work which Brentlinger estimates will be completed within two months. The perfected equipment will weigh approximately 125 pounds as compared to from 600 to 700 pounds of equipment now required.

Frazier Heir Hearing Postponed for Month

When the second hearing to determine heirship in the late James Frazer's estate was called in Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt's court on Monday, a continuance until June 24 was granted so that depositions from the alleged heirs, most of whom live in Ireland, could be secured.

STATE RAILROAD BODY ORDERS VALUE FIXED ON ELECTRIC UTILITY

Evaluation Engineers Expected in Field Within Week

Objections of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to the City of Redwood City's petition for an evaluation study of the electrical distribution system in Redwood City were overruled by the California State Railroad Commission in an order Tuesday and state engineers were ordered to undertake the survey.

C. T. Mess of San Mateo, chief evaluation engineer of the state commission, will be in charge of the study. Engineers of the city and P. G. and E. will co-operate.

The city council has appropriated $3000 for the study, and the city has maps prepared and the property listed so that the work may proceed without delay and at minimum cost.

Hearing on the evaluation study has been set by the state commission for Tuesday, September 24, at which time the price for the system is expected to be determined.

TO PURCHASE POWER

The engineers will determine upon the reproduction cost of the electrical system and will figure the depreciation and severance damages. To offset severance damages the city will agree to take power from the P. G. and E. for a definite number of years.

Redwood City plans to acquire only the poles and wires and that part of the system required to distribute electricity to consumers within the city. The company's substations, corporation yard and other equipment required in serving the balance of the system will not be purchased.

Purpose of the acquisition is to secure a reduction in rates under municipal ownership and to retain the profits of the system for the benefit of the public.

Overruling of the P. G. and E. objections and the ordering of the evaluation study without amending the petition of the city was considered a credit to City Attorney Albert Mansfield and City Manager Ernest Rolison's preparation of the city's case. It is believed the first time that the petition has been sustained in its original filing.

Exchange 'Liars' Given Full Sway At Joint Meeting

Twenty members of the Redwood City Exchange Club paid a surprise visit to the Palo Alto club on Tuesday at a dinner meeting in the Cardinal Hotel. President Harold Anderson of the Redwood City club and President Frank Lee Crist of the Palo Alto club jointly presided.

Ed Zweirlein of the Palo Alto club was chairman of the evening. The two clubs engaged in a "liar's contest" with Colon Stokes of the Redwood City club and Charles Saunders of the Palo Alto club tying for honors.

Duncan Revnard of the Redwood City club favored the group with a series of tenor banjo numbers and songs and Pete Towne, also of the local club, played piano selections.

Chamber Exhibit Planned in L. A.

Twelve points of interest in San Mateo county, depicted in large photographs, and seven enlarged sepias—framed pictures—of scenes in the county will be exhibited at the Hotel Greeters' convention in Los Angeles June 2 to 6, Roscoe D. Wyatt, secretary-manager of the local chamber of commerce, disclosed today.

The Redwood City chamber is joining with other bay cities in sending an exhibit to the convention, which is to be held at the Ambassador Hotel. The local display is being assembled from material already on hand—hence no expense is being entailed.

Booklets telling of the city and county also are being sent.

Aviator Averts Crash As Ship Strikes Wires

P. A. Port Is Scene Of Near Accident; Another Hurt

Narrowly averting a crash which might have meant serious injury or death, Kenneth Ritchie, 21-year-old student pilot, at 6:16 o'clock on Sunday tore power and telephone lines loose from poles on the Embarcadero road adjacent to the new municipal airport in Palo Alto as he landed his training plane.

Ritchie, who lives in San Francisco, miscalculated his height, and the landing gear of his red ship, which is owned by Richard J. F. Donovan of Palo Alto, caught in the wires. Power service in the North Palo Alto district was disrupted for a short time by the accident.

Only because the 4000-volt high tension power wires and the telephone lines gave way was Ritchie saved from a serious accident. The wires are about 35 feet from the ground. The youth, who has been flying about three months, was alone in the plane at the time. The ship was not damaged.

In an air crash at the Oakland airport late Saturday, Alfonso Macaya, 28, Stanford student and brother of the "Lindbergh of Costa Rica," was injured so seriously he may yet die. Macaya, son of a Costa Rica coffee planter, was banking the plane near the ground when it nosed down and crashed.

Macaya's brother gained the Lindbergh title when he flew from Oakland to Central America in 1933 with Paul McCarthy, Oakland flier.

HAWAIIAN VIGNETTES

VII

By Frances Parkinson Keyes

It is just a century since the first American mission was established in beautiful Kauai, the Garden Island; and this year that significant event was celebrated with appropriate ceremony.

The church built by William Alexander of Kentucky, who founded this Waioli mission, and the house in which he lived, are still in a state of perfect preservation. The church—which has served as the inspiration for that unique type of building known as "Hawaiian architecture"—is a low-set, rectangular building with a sloping roof supported by a simple colonnade. The house is square-built, white-clapboarded, deep-hearthed, equipped with the Dutch oven, the four-posters, the hooded cradle, the tall desk and the stiff settee of the American pioneer. They are typical of the upright and uncompromising standards of the men who created and possessed them, the same standards upon which the present power and glory of Hawaii rest so securely. It was the little band of devout and inspired men and women, among whom William Alexander was such an outstanding leader, who "hitched Hawaii's wagon to a star," as Gilbert Grosvenor has so beautifully expressed it. "It was their children and grandchildren who guided the successive sovereigns of Hawaii—and who, when the Islanders had outgrown the monarchy, led the movement for independence and the ultimate entrance of the Territory of Hawaii as an integral part of the United States."

The great-grandchildren of those early missionaries are carrying on now; and one of them, Miss Mary Alexander, delivered the memorial address at the celebration, calling it "What Led from Kentucky to Waioli," and tracing, in a touching and telling way, the impetus which actuated the Christianization of the Islands. This address was an outstanding feature in services which, throughout, was effecting and impressive. The Doxology was sung and the Lord's Prayer was recited in Hawaiian. A sermon was preached to the inspiring text of "This Bethel is none other than the House of God." And the congregation and choir joined in singing the old mission hymns and anthems, culminating with the supplication which has been the plea of millions of trusting souls:

Savior, like a shepherd lead us,
For we need thy tender care—"

The celebration was not wholly one of solemnity; the atmosphere of Kauai is warm and joyous, and the centennial took its tone from its surroundings. After the church services, more than a thousand persons sat down to a festive luau, which was served at long tables decorated with ferns, set up in the parish house and on the encircling lanai and lawns; and throughout the afternoon, Miss Elsie Wilcox, a member of the Territorial Senate and a descendant of Abner Wilcox, William Alexander's successor at Waioli, kept open house in her quaint and charming home nearby, where a white-robed choir sang sweet old-fashioned songs. Then gradually the visitors dispersed; some went only a little further along the winding road, stopping at Hanalei Beach and the dim mysterious caverns known as the Wet and Dry caves, before going hastily back to Lihue to take the night boat or the morning plane to Honolulu. But others—and these were wiser—decided to linger and see the Garden Island in leisurely fashion; to gaze into vivid Waimea canyon, that "deep ruggedly sculptured gorge flashing with color and laced with waterfalls"; to chute the chutes on the Sliding Bathtub; to listen to the Barking Sands and the Spouting Horn; to try to wake the Sleeping Giant; to recreate the romance of Queen Emma's house—

For a centennial may be commemorated only once. But there are a hundred other ways to celebrate, every day and every year, in the Garden Island!

VIII

Very early in the morning I waked and heard the sounds of happiness rising from the water.

I got up and went out on my lanai. It was barely light, the sky pearl gray overhead, pale lemon-colored behind the jagged darkness of Diamond Head. The palms were sharp black silhouettes against a dim and shadowy shore. The sea was sombre as indigo. But in it I could discern the forms of men, swimming out to greet the dawn, and shouting as they swam.

That is Waikiki at daybreak.

The sun came out, the day was bright and balmy. Children began to play in the sand, scooping it up in warm golden shovelfuls. Then, dropping their spades, they sprang up and ran, unafraid, to the place where the shallow water came curling gently in under their small, pink feet. Dogs bounded along beside them, barking at their heels. Youthful parents, clad in abbreviated bathing suits, held out helping hands. The united families, followed by the household pet, all plunged into the sea together. Under the shade of striped umbrellas—gay orange, cool green—pleasure-seekers less energetically inclined lay extended in canvas chairs, light literature in their hands. Others, equally indolent, but more daring, stretched at full length in the warm sun, their fair skin growing gradually copper-colored, their languid eyes closed, their arms limp. Over the waves, the outrigger canoes, manned by vigorous oarsmen, and the surfboards, surmounted with tall, jubilant figures, came riding triumphantly in towards land.

That is Waikiki at noon.

A boy and girl were swimming side by side with swift, sure strokes. Then they emerged from the water, shaking themselves like young puppies, and swung along the shore, slim, supple, unselfconscious, entirely absorbed in each other. They stopped and stood face to face for a moment, the girl's long beautiful hair streaming out behind her, the boy's thick mop thrust back from his brow. After that they separated, gaily, nonchalantly, the girl running in one direction, the boy in another, oil, according to recent estimates. But presently he turned impulsively. He hesitated, almost imperceptibly. Then he started in pursuit of his lovely young companion, overtook her, swung her gently about by the shoulders. The next instant she had thrown her arms around his neck and they had kissed one another, spontaneously, joyously, oblivious of everything and everyone else in the world, the embodiment of untroubled and untarnished young love. Then once again they parted, springing over the sand as if their embrace had given wings to their soaring spirits as well as to their flying feet.

That is Waikiki at sunset.

The moon had come up and swung, portentious and luminous, over a hushed land and an unrippled sea. Through the stillness came the sound of voices rising poignantly and plaintively to the accompaniment of a guitar. Someone was singing "Hawaiian Paradise." The air was caught up, repeated, echoed; and this time the sound rose from the ocean. For there were still swimmers cleaving quietly through the silent water; and their song was the paen of the great lovers of the sea who abide with her in the darkness and commune with her under the stars, drawing strength and refreshment from the depths.

And that is Waikiki at night.

SYSTEM REALITY BROUGHT NEARER

$300 Per Day Will Be Paid in Salaries For Pair

Plans for a rapid transit system between the peninsula and San Francisco moved a step nearer reality last night when the bay city's Public Utilities Commission authorized employment of two well-known engineers to make a survey.

Robert Ridgway, former chief engineer of New York City, who built all of the New York subways, will be employed at a salary of $200 a day. He will be aided by Andrew Grahey, Boston engineer, who will receive $100 a day.

Ridgway headed the commission of three that made the original survey and report on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, recommending the route along which the bridge now is being constructed.

The commission also authorized payment of $250,000 to the United States as the fourth annual installment under the Raker act for construction of roads and trails in the Yosemite National Park. There still is one additional payment to be made.

Tiedeman Acquires Sunnyvale Standard

Sale of the Sunnyvale Standard, one of the oldest weekly newspapers in Santa Clara County to John E. Tiedeman, publisher and owner of the Redwood City Standard, was announced today.

Tiedeman will print and publish both the Sunnyvale and Redwood City newspapers from shops in each community. He will publish the first edition of the Sunnyvale paper under his ownership June 7, having acquired the paper from Clem and Harold Bradshaw, who edited and managed the paper for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiedeman will continue to make their home in Redwood City.

50 Homes Sought For Teacher Visitors

Temporary homes for 50 or more teachers from all over the state who will attend a summer training school in Atherton during July are being sought by the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, Roscoe D. Wyatt, secretary-manager, announced today.

Many of the teachers will prefer rooms in private homes where other accomodations may be had, Wyatt said.

"Restaurants, theaters and stores will be benefited if these visitors can find comfortable rooms for the month they are here," Wyatt said. "If those who believe they have suitable facilites will report them to the chamber of commerce in writing, it will assist in placing the information in the hands of those interested.

"Complete data should be given as to the facilities available, the price of the room and its location. In view of the short time in which reservations are to be made, these facts should be sent to the chamber of commerce, Redwood City, as soon as possible."

$23,000 IN SUITS FOR WRECKS FILED

Crash Four Years Ago Brings $15,000 Action

Two suits totaling $23,000 were filed today in superior court by Attorney Vincent W. Hallinan of San Francisco on behalf of his clients.

One of the suits arises from an accident which occurred nearly four years ago. David J. Waen, through his guardian, Annie Waen, seeks $15,000 from Dora Lewis as the result of an accident June 28, 1931, on the Bayshore highway near San Mateo. The plaintiff charges that he was riding with Miss Lewis when he was permanently injured as her car went off the road and turned over.

In the other suit, four plaintiffs each seek $2000 from the Market Street Railway Company. They are Dorothy Nelson, William E. Nelson, Catherine Nelson and Leo B. McGuire. They charge that on April 7 of this year while they were waiting for traffic to pass in Daly City a street car crashed into the rear of their machine. Attorney E. R. Burns is associated with Hallinan in this suit.

SEEKS SONS' CUSTODY

Mrs. Cynthia Anderson Beal of Los Angeles today filed an affidavit in superior court requesting custody of two of her three sons for the summer. The divorced wife of Harold S. Anderson, rich Hillsborough contractor, Mrs. Anderson asks custody of sons, John and Robert, Burlingame students.

John Linus, Redwood City artist who now has 23 of his paintings on exhibit at 439 Florence street, Palo Alto, plans to show his works at his home here at 1701 Brewster Saturday before moving them to San Francisco next week. In the bay city the paintings will be shown at 614 Cabrillo street.

Saturday night Linus will be host to about a hundred invited artists, critics and other friends at a garden party and exhibit at his home.

Three of Linus' Swedish paintings were en route today to San Diego where they will be shown in the Swedish pavilion at the exposition there, which opens tomorrow. Linus' entire exhibit, following the showing in Shan Francisco and a 14-day showing in Atherton starting July 1, will be sent to San Diego.

SCHOOL MAY BUY LOUD SPEAKER

Senior Class Funds Of 2 Years Will Be Used

Sequoia high school plans to purchase a new public address system, Principal A. C. Argo announced today. Its final acquisition will be subject to successful demonstrations, now underway.

The cost of the new apparatus, which is to be used at the coming graduation exercises, class day exercises, and next year at rallies, football games and dances, will be defrayed by funds from last year's and this year's senior class gifts, and by donations from other organizations using the broadcasting system. The cost will be approximately $200, Argo stated.

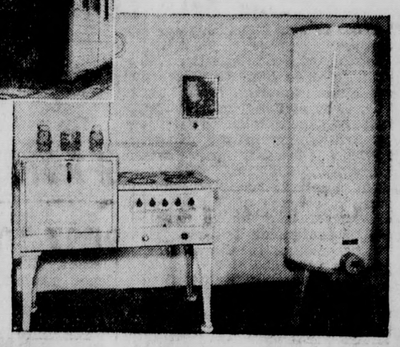
"Everybody likes a Bargain ... Half-Price Electricity is a Real One"

... says CHAS. A. HUTCHINGS 80 Floyd St. San Jose



AN AVERAGE monthly bill of $4.74, with Half-Off on Extra electricity, gives to the Hutchings' home the modern, convenient services of the electric range, electric water heater, refrigerator, washing machine, lighting and additional smaller appliances. There is proof that electricity today is one of the greatest bargains in the home.

Read this letter from the Hutchings:

"Since the half-off plan has been in effect, we have enjoyed some very pleasing discounts on our electric bill.

"The electric range, water heater, refrigerator and washing machine which we installed last fall are all the more comfort and convenience now that your company is making such a bargain of electricity.

"The new appliances are operating on the extra electricity plan, and so far have cost very little to run. The total bill for January was $7.73 less the $2.73 discount or net $5.00. The February bill netted $4.69 while the March bill with the $2.54 discount was only $4.53.

"Everybody likes a bargain and we can sincerely recommend your offer as a real one."

NOW 238,346 ARE SAVING MONEY THIS WAY

½ OFF EXTRA Electricity means: When your electric bill in any month of 1935 is greater than your bill for the corresponding month of 1934, at same location, YOU GET A 50% DISCOUNT ON THE DIFFERENCE.

Amazing Facts!
Three large paint manufacturers maintain experimental stations where every known paint is tested by exposure to weather. Here are paints made of all the old formulas as well as paints made from new materials and by new formulas. Our paint chemists, always searching for the newest and best, studied these tests.
Among all these paints, tested under identical conditions, just one was outstanding. After 4 years' exposure the paint film was smooth, unbroken and beautifully white. It contained a new material, Titanium Dioxide, skillfully balanced with White Lead, Zinc Oxide and Asbestine.
Wards have made Super Paint to the same formula. There is only one difference: Wards low price!

STATE NOT TO CREATE DRY AREA IN ATHERTON AS ASKED BY SCHOOLS

Menlo School Counsel Disputes Opinion; To File Answer

That neither the county nor the state board of equalization can zone the territory adjacent to the Menlo School and Junior College against the sale of liquor was the opinion expressed today by attorneys for the liquor interests and by the state board itself.

On the other hand, however, attorneys for the college were as insistent as ever that the county board of supervisors could create a no-liquor zone, as requested by the college, and were preparing a brief for District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell pointing out how the county could lawfully prevent sale of intoxicants in the zone.

In a written reply to a recommendation of the Atherton Town Council that the state forbid sale of liquor within a half mile of the school, the state board took the stand that it cannot create such a dry zone outright. The position of the board was set forth in a letter to and read before the Atherton council late yesterday.

CONSIDER EACH CASE

In its letter the board pointed out that it must consider separately the case of each liquor establishment now operating in the area in question, and only when the matter is brought to its attention by separate complaints against each establishment.

A similar letter has been mailed to the Menlo school.

Because the people of California in the November 6, 1934, election amended the constitution to give the state exclusive right and power to control the liquor traffic, the county has no authority to zone the district, it was said in a 15-page brief submitted to the district attorney's office by the law firm of Rogers, Clark & O'Brien of San Francisco, on behalf of "property owners" in Menlo Park. It was pointed out that the question of regulating the liquor traffic in all its phases has been placed exclusively in the hands of the state board of equalization. There is adequate remedy available through the equalization board, the brief states. This organization would have the right to establish a half-mile no-liquor zone around the college if it so desired by revoking permits to dealers there.

CONTRAVENING LAW

Referring to Article XX, Section 22, of the state constitution, the attorneys point out that the law "vests in the state exclusive authority to license and regulate the sale of liquor, and places the administration of that authority in the state board of equalization."

"A local ordinance purporting to regulate the sale of liquor would therefore be void as contravening this express provision of the constitution," the attorneys point out.

"The state board was given exclusive right and power to license and regulate manufacture, sale, purchase, possession or transportation of liquor," the attorneys continue.

On the other hand, Attorney Avery J. Howe of Palo Alto, counsel for the college, was preparing a brief for the district attorney stating that he believes the planning commission has the authority to zone against any certain line of business, and consequently could rule against liquor stores.

Until such time as the planning commission decides this point, the district attorney's office will not rule on the supervisors' power to zone the district, it was said today.

The letter of the state board to the Atherton council read as follows:

"It is the opinion of the board that, in order for the board to deny applications for liquor licenses for premises located within the area surrounding the Menlo School and Junior College and to revoke licenses already issued for premises located within such area. it would be necessary to establish in each case that the issuance or continuance of the license would be contrary to public welfare and morals.

MUST HAVE COMPLAINT

"In order that the board may take such action, it will be necessary that a verified complaint be filed respecting each premise where it is believed that the sale of liquor would be contrary to public welfare and morals."

The letter was signed by Frank Keesling, attorney and assistant secretary to the state board.

Five establishments are now selling liquor on property adjoining the school.

The controversy over liquor sales adjoining the school followed closely on the heels of the prolonged fight over sale of liquor in Menlo Park, within a mile and a half of the Stanford campus limits—an area closed to liquor sale by state law.

When the state board finally forbade such sale in conformance with a ruling of the state supreme court upholding the law, several liquor dealers moved into the "no man's land" area between Menlo Park and Atherton and adjoining the Menlo school.

Lowery S. Howard, president of the school, immediately protested.

Clarence Wolter, Atherton council, chracterized the stand taken by the state board in its letter as "ridiculous."

JAILED FOR HITTING WOMAN

Robert Allain, 23, arrested by local police on a battery charge after he had struck a woman in a fight on Tuesday, pleaded guilty to the charge before Police Judge McAuliffe today and was sentenced to pay a $50 fine or spend 10 days in jail. He chose the jail term.

Two SERA Projects Given Kellogg 'OK'

Recognizing for the first time since his attempted ouster of the engineer the official capacity of Carl R. Scott, County Executive Walter Kellogg today affixed his signature to an SERA project for brushing, sloping banks and grading 1⅛ miles of the Butano Creek road. It will employ 21 men. Total cost will be $1,585, of which $1,440 in labor will be furnished by SERA, the county supplying $145 worth of equipment. The work was recommended by Scott, to whom the project was referred by the board of supervisors.

Kellogg also accepted Fred Crumb's request for approval of right-of-way for a road near Memorial Park. It involves purchase for $1,000 of land owned by Charles H. Jensen or for $600 of land owned by Russell E. and Hazel H. Jackson. Final approval of the purchase will be asked of the supervisors Monday also.

In order to circumvent Kellogg's stand that he would approve no claims signed by Scott until the court has decided whether Scott or Urban S. Marshall is engineer, claims for materials have been signed recently by E. B. Bailey, chief deputy, who is still legally in office.

McKinley Dramatic Classes Give Play

Dramtic classes at the McKinley Elementary School yesterday presented in the auditorium "The Princess Who Could Not Dance." Three performances were given, one in the morning for the Lincoln and McKinley schools, one in the afternoon for the McKinley intermediate group and one in the evening for parents. This last performance was supplemented by a group of songs by the school glee club, directed by Miss Patricia Salmon, who also directed the play.

The cast included Robert Wilkins, page in gold; Carley Deskins, the queen; Albert Maxon, lord high chancellor; Annie Meyers, the princess; Faye Libby, Lady Sarah; Wesley Lynes, Kenneth Portelli and Justin Eshleman, dancing masters; John Sisson, the prince; John Polzoni, the duke; Azel Raso and Jean Folsom, pages; Reta Holt, the little old woman; Florence Gorman, leader of the villagers, and members of the fifth and sixth grades' glee club, villagers.

NO GRADES ON DIPLOMAS

Despite fears of graduating students, English grades will not be placed on diplomas this year, Principal A. C. Argo said today. The plan had been discussed, but was decided against.

RECOVERS FROM SNAKEBITE

J. J. Thiebaut of San Francisco, who was bitten last week by a rattlesnake near Portola, has been dismissed from the Palo Alto Hospital where he was taken.

MENLO PARK

George Angus and wife are about to close their home in Menlo Park and spend the summer in San Diego.

Friends of E. J. Crane, ex-councilman, will be pleased to know that he is recovering from his recent illness. He has been confined to his home since last Friday and is attended by Dr. Gerlough.

St. Patrick's Seminary will close on June 15 with appropriate ceremony. Fifteen young men are to be ordained by Archbishop Mitty.

The Stern home at Atherton was sold this week to Mr. James of San Francisco. The estate was one of the show places of the peninsula. Over a quarter of a million dollars was expended on the property by the late S. Stern. It was sold for a lesser sum.

Miss Florence McCormick, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McCormick, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McCormick of Atherton, will be married tomorrow to a San Francisco businessman. The marriage is to be one of the big society events of the year.

The attractive appearance of Holy Cross Cemetery on Decoration Day was due to the persistent energy of George Walsh, who collected funds to clear the big growth of grass and weeds. Sufficient money was donated to clean all graves as well as the pathways and streets. The thanks of the community are due Mr. Walsh for his noble work.

The Mary O'Keefe estate was distributed to 52 heirs last week by the superior court of this county. The institutions of this locality receiving funds were the Church of the Nativity, Altar Society, St. Joseph's Parochial School and Corpus Christi. O'Keefe and O'Keefe were the attorneys. Father D. Bailey was the executor of the will.

J. O'Kane of Belmont has leased the Palm Hotel at Menlo Park.

Horse, Dog Judging at Show Occupies Entire Afternoon

There were big dogs and little dogs, alley cats and pedigreed cats, chickens, turtles, pheasants, raccoons, and dozens of other kinds of pets entered in Saturday's show here, but it took a 5½-pound toy snowzer to capture the eye of the judges and be declared the best dog of all those entered.

The little black dog, which in appearance is much like a Scotty, belonged to 15-year-old Marshall Joseph McGuire of Burlingame. The pup's name is Asta of Banbivin. It won a blue ribbon and cup in its class, then took the cup for being the best dog at the show.

260 PETS ENTERED

Dozens of blue ribbons were awarded pets throughout the afternoon. More than 260 pets—about the same number as last year—were entered in the show, but the crowd that saw them was the largest in all the five years the Humane Society has sponsored the exhibit, it was reported.

There was more variety of pets, too, it is believed, though several novel entries scheduled to be shown were not exhibited. Among them was the display of monkeys.

HORSES JUDGED FIRST

First pets to be judged—if they can be called such—were the horses. In the cow horse class Ed Zwierlin's Patches won the blue ribbon, and likewise the Woman's Club trophy. Ruth Warner's steed won the blue ribbon in the stock horse class, while Miss Viola Kelly's Rita was adjudged best of the English saddle horses. In this entry, next three places were taken by mounts belonging to Dan Foley, who had a large number of horses entered.

TWO PONY CLASSES

Six Shetland ponies were entered. Irene Boicelli's Peggy won first in the large class, while John Lewis Morton's Tony was adjudged by Mrs. W. J. Mack, judge of the horses, to be the best small pony in the show.

DOG JUDGING HARD

There were dozens of dogs for Dan Shuttleworth and Miss Topsy Spohn to pick winners from.

Thelma Thompson's Chummy won the male cocker spaniel award, while Lassie, owned by Marian Copps, "copped" the blue ribbon in the female class.

In the male chow class, Dan Sagehorn's Teddy was adjudged winner, while Marjorie Hardeman's Winnie was the only, consequently the best, female entry.

Three types of setters were judged, Mary Jane Quinlan's Rover winning the English setter class; Donald Holmquist's Sir Mike of Rockacres being the best Irish setter and David Leonard's Michael Angelo being the best Gordon setter.

MANY FOX TERRIERS

Seven male and four female fox terriers were shown, Donald Simpson's Bingo winning in the male class and Dolly Simpson's Trixie getting the blue ribbon for females.

In the wire hair fox terrier class, Chummy, owned by Nancy Roberts, took the blue ribbon, while Jerry Wirth's female dog was given the high award in its division.

Howard Brown's Pal was given a blue ribbon for being the best water spaniel in the show.

Lady Lou Hannah, owned by Betty Lou Rowe, won the Scotty award.

PUPPY AWARDS GIVEN

Blue ribbons were given puppies as follows: Jack Bonner's Poochie; Mrs. M. Schwartz' Brownie; Nell Ruth Beyer's Lassie; Buddy Kelly's Ming Chow; W. H. Moulthrop's Skipper, and Jack Baxter's Chin Chow.

In the toy dog class, Everett Rockhold's Martie was considered winner.

Big Boy, a giant Great Dane dog entered by Warren Johnson, won a blue ribbon, as did J. B. Lane's Nordo of the Golden West, a police dog that was nearly as big.

Evelyn Marsack's Boston male and Mrs. F. E. Musso's female were winners in their classes, while J. B. Lane's and Marjorie Capps' dogs won in the shepherd class.

MISCELLANEOUS DOGS

In the miscellaneous class, which seemed to include everything from mongrels to thoroughbreds, blue ribbons were given for Noel Mead's Prince; Kenneth Wakefield's Snippy, and Doris Bryant's Prince.

Judging of the dogs was not completed until after 6 o'clock.

Second Suicide Try Fatal to Coastsider

SAN MATEO, May 28 — Leo Santiago of Moss Beach died today from poison taken yesterday at his home, apparently during a fit of despondency over inability to secure employment. He was rushed to the San Mateo County Community Hospital and given emergency treatment, but did not recover. In June, it was reported, Santiago made a similar attempt to take his life.

He leaves an 18-year-old wife and a six-month-old baby.

Four Flower Exhibits To Be Shown Tonight

Four exhibits of flowers will be shown tonight when the regular monthly meeting of the Menlo Park Horticultural Society is held in the Menlo Park Masonic Hall at 8 o'clock. Awards will be given in three classes of sweet peas; best vase of nine spikes of Larkspur, best vase six spikes of delphinium, and best exhibit of unclassified. A card party will follow judging of exhibits.

Second Crash Takes Aged Man to Hospital

BURLINGAME, May 27.—William Toseman, 79, of Burlingame was in Mills Memorial Hospital today in a semi-conscious condition after being hit last week by an automobile on El Camino Real, the second time this month that he has been struck by a car on the highway.

Claude Currie of San Francisco was the driver of the machine which ran into Toseman, according to police reports. The elderly man was badly bruised and shaken up, but will recover, reports from the hospital stated.

CYCLIST IS INJURED

DALY CITY, May 27—H. Parson, 25, of San Francisco, was in a South San Francisco hospital today after fracturing his leg and injuring his knee, arm and head in an accident that occurred last week at Daly City, where he, on a motorcycle, ran into a machine driven by Errol Rundell of San Francisco.

WARD WILL SERVE

Stuart Ward of Belmont will be the Legion's representative of the county censor board, the board of supervisors was informed today.

$2,500 Award Given For Crash Injuries

For injuries sustained in a 3-car automobile collision on El Camino Real in Burlingame October 7, 1933, Florence Hutton had today been awarded $2500 damages against Dan Giordono, after a two-day trial before Superior Judge A. R. Cotton in court here.

The plaintiff had sought $25,000. She claimed the accident happened when Giordono's machine, after colliding with one driven by Mildred Trittipo, swerved and struck the Hutton car. Mildred Trittipo and Harvey W. Trittipo, who were also made defendants in the suit, were absolved of blame by the jury, the judgment being only against Giordono.

The law firms of Ross & Ross and Livingston & Livingston represented the victorious plaintiff in the suit.

S. M. Mayor Scores Vandalism in Parks

SAN MATEO, May 27—Mayor Frank Simmens took a militant stand today against recent vandalism in San Mateo city parks.

"The damage done to the parks by students and other persons, must stop," he declared. "I'll put a plain clothes man in the parks to stop it, if this becomes necessary."

Police Judge Arthur H. Stetson said any one caught committing vandalism in the city parks would be given a jail term.

Theatre Repair Cost Set at Over $11,000

Reconstruction and repair of the San Mateo Theater on Third avenue in San Mateo will cost $11,352.72, according to a copy of a contract for the work filed in the recorder's office here today.

The James L. McLaughlin Company will do the work, which will start at once. The San Francisco & San Mateo Amusement Company is owner of the property, which was damaged by fire last year.

Home Environment Importance Stressed

Importance of cultivating a cheerful and happy home environment was stressed by Mrs. Jerome Crays in an address on home management Thursday afternoon at the Redwood Theater.

HONORARY AWARD TO PARROT ENTRY

'Finest Parade Ever' Is Statement Made Of Display Here

The Veterans of Foreign Wars' float representing a home with "kids" in the flowered yard was adjudged the best in the Humane Society sponsored parade here Saturday afternoon. As a result, the float was given the $10 first prize awarded by the city of Redwood City.

An honorary award was given by Judges Sam Winklebleck, E. B. Hinman and Perry Bygdnes to Betty Chapman's parrot float.

Honorable mention was made of the floats entered by the Home Owned Independent Merchants League, the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, Redwood City schools, Kiwanis Club, Lions Club and Home Builders.

Commercial floats were not considered in the judging.

The parade was declared to be the finest ever staged in Redwood City. It took more than a half hour for the entries to go past the reviewing stand.

Parade Director W. H. ("Bill") Moulthrop Monday expressed appreciation for co-operation of all those who took part in the parade. "I also wish to thank the staff, judges, Chief of Police Collins and his staff and others who helped make this parade the best ever held here on the occasion of pet shows," Moulthrop said.

The phrase, "the almighty dollar," is attributed to Washington Irving. It appears twice in Irving's "Creole Village," first published in England in 1837.

Albert Mann, member of the Sequoia Hi-Y Club, the high school boys' organization under the program of the Young Men's Christian Association, was the speaker at the last meeting of the club for the season at the high school Friday noon. A number of members of the Hi-Y have volunteered as counselors with the younger boys in camp. They have been taking the training course for the work. A section of Camp Yu-Mi-Ci-A and Camp McCoy will be given over to the boys 15 to 18 years of age. In addition there will be a two-weeks pack trip for older boys following the close of Camp McCoy. This trip will take the boys into the back country of the high Sierras.

COUNSELORS PLAN CAMPING SEASON

Fifty camp counselors, directors, doctors and administrators of Camp Yu-Mi-Ci-A and Camp McCoy, the boys' camp of the Young Men's Christian Association, spent Saturday evening and Sunday at Camp Yu-Mi-Ci-A near La Honda to make plans for the camping season, which starts the middle of June. In addition to the young men from San Francisco, the prospective counselors represented the following peninsula communities: Palo Alto, Redwood City, San Carlos, San Mateo, Burlingame and Millbrae.

John Titsworth, metropolitan boys' work secretary, was in charge.

In addition to planning for various craft, health, sports and swimming projects, three speakers presented various phases of camping. Milton Mauer, committeeman from San Francisco, spoke on "What the Y. M. C. A. Expects of the Camp Counselor." Dr. C. C. Berwick, committeeman in charge of camp health and safety, talked on "Camp Preventative Medicine," in which he pointed out the opportunities for the alert leader in keeping up the health rating of camp. Merle Scott spoke on "Putting the Vital Spark Into Camp," in which he dealt with the development of character and the spiritual side of the boy.

Special emphasis will be given to the swimming program, with two senior Red Cross life guards on hand to promote this important activity. Not only the Red Cross certificates and buttons but those of the Y. M. C. A. will be available. The requirements for passing tests under the Y. M. C. A. program are more difficult.

The craft programs for the various age groups will be more attractive and give the boys a wider variety of choice than ever before, it was reported.

2 eggs
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon melted Crisco
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup flour
¼ cup grated cheese
CRISCO for deep-frying

Wash cauliflower and separate into flowerets. Boil until tender in boiling salted water, then drain. (A slice of lemon boiled with cauliflower keeps it beautifully white.) Dip flowerets into batter prepared this way: Beat eggs with milk. Stir liquid into flour and salt. Add melted Crisco and cheese. Beat until smooth. Fry flowerets in deep hot CRISCO (the digestible vegetable fat) when an inch cube of bread browns in 40 seconds (375°-385° F.). Fry until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve hot. Every Day this Salesman Knocks at nearly 3000 Doors*

... and ALWAYS FINDS SOMEBODY HOME

It's putting it mild to say that The Tribune is a welcome salesman. If it ever fails to show up at a front door our circulation department gets a nasty phone call. Yet The Tribune doesn't try, ahead of everything else, to be a salesman. Its main purpose in life is to inform and entertain, as any well-written, well-edited newspaper should do. Meeting its readers on their own terms, it lets them sell themselves—the secret of good salesmanship the world over.

That's why The Tribune is one "business visitor" that's accepted socially by most any family when it is in a social mood. It interviews each buying member of the household when the sales-resistance bars are down. It is accepted by them all as an old family friend. Which isn't hard to understand. For The Tribune bears the stamp of reliability. Readers depend on it—from Mother with her recipe-problems down to Junior who mixes sports with his comics.

It is believed.

And it will sell more merchandise for you for that reason alone.

Reports Indicate 700 May Attend Sea Regatta Here

Further plans for the gigantic Sea Scout regatta to be held here over Labor Day were discussed Monday night when the committee in charge of the affair met in Burlingame.

Reports were made and all items pertaining to the program were gone over thoroughly to fit in with facilities available at Redwood Harbor.

It was reported that more than 250 boys and officers already have signed up to attend the meeting here, which will be the second annual regatta. It is anticipated nearly 700 will be in attendance, and plans are being made to care for that many.

Highlights of the regatta include a parade of all the visiting scouts, who will come here from over the entire state, and a dance to be given on Saturday night.

Redwood City has been designed by national scout headquarters in Washington as the western base for Sea Scouts.

The coming regatta will be the largest affair of its kind ever held in the United States. Approximately 50 boats, manned by scouts, will anchor at the local harbor. Camp will be pitched at the harbor for the youths, who range from 15 to 21 years of age, and the officers in attendance.

Present at last night's meeting were Howard C. King, Bert L. Werder and Max J. Leonard of Redwood City; Elmer Anderson and Scout Executive E. A. Barrer of Burlingame; Victor Morgan, Woodside; Clyde Pearson and Skipper Jones from the San Francisco Sea Scout council.

Second Murder Trial In 2 Weeks Underway

A crowded courtroom today saw the county's second murder trial in as many weeks get underway with selection of a jury in Superior Judge A. R. Cotton's court.

Mota is accused by the state of slashing Hernandez in a knife fight after a dance in South San Francisco. He is represented in the trial by Attorney T. Hyman of San Francisco. District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell and Deputy Louis B. Dematteis were presenting the state's case.

SERA INTENDS TO COMPLETE COAST SEWER

Maintenance District For Montara Area To Be Formed

Additional SERA funds will be provided for the disputed Montara sewer system if the district indicates its good faith to form a maintenance district, Assistant District Attorney Daniel Sullivan informed the board of supervisors at Monday afternoon's meeting. The sum of $6,000 will be needed.

P. M. Schaible informed the board that Montara desires the maintenance district formed under the act of 1927 with the county engineer in charge. George Dunn, speaking in behalf of the plans and projects committee, said the group was acting under state regulations and not forcing the district on Montara.

The board adopted a 100-foot setback line for El Camino Real from Redwood City to Palo Alto, after no protests were filed.

Deeds were accepted from W. F. Rose for land and removal of buildings to cost $500 and from Frank Weeks for $1,000 on the Pescadero Creek road. Condemnation against the Middleton, Maddox and other properties was ordered.

Expenditure of $961.76 for new equipment in District Attorney Gilbert Ferrell's office was held up one week.

Bids for repairing the ice plant at the county hospital were ordered.

Expenditure of $600 to destroy growths of milk thistle, wild parsnip and yellow star thistle along the Alpine road was approved.

J. A. Meeks and other San Benito avenue property owners were granted permission to connect to the North Fair Oaks sewer.

Woodside Road Measure Given Senate Support

Inclusion of the Woodside road in the secondary state highway system today had won approval of the senate roads and highways committee, Assemblyman Frederick Peterson reported from Sacramento.

The bill, AB 2448, is now before the senate with a "do pass" recommendation. Peterson is author of the measure.

Responsibility for construction, maintenance and policing would be shifted to the state if the road is accepted.

The second link in the proposed City-to-the-Sea highway thus to be created, from the Skyline boulevard intersection through La Honda canyon to San Gregorio, is not already a part of the state secondary system, as reported last week, but is a county road maintained by the county road department.

Boy, 7, Drowns In Palo Alto's Municipal Pool

Palo Alto's municipal swimming pool in Rinconada Park was the scene of tragedy Sunday afternoon when a 7-year-old San Francisco boy drowned while scores of bathers were present.

The boy was Richard Gnecco, son of Mrs. Betty Gnecco of 2265 Broadway, San Francisco. She is the widow of M. H. Gnecco, marble manufacturer.

Circumstances surrounding the tragedy remained a mystery today. One bystander reported seeing the boy go in the pool, wearing only swimming trunks. The bystander's attention was diverted and 10 minutes later the body was recovered after a swimmer had stumbled over it in three feet of water. The lad's mother was preparing lunch nearby at the time.

2 Women Held After Escape

Short-Lived Freedom Ends in San Bruno For Pair

In a desperate bid for freedom, two women prisoners, clad only in nightgowns, escaped from the new San Francisco county jail hospital in this county early today, only to be recaptured an hour later by San Bruno police.

The women, Helen Goin, 24, and Marjorie Gregory, 34, both serving 90 days for vagrancy, were cut about the hands and shoulders from barbed wire and injured when they fell from the top of a 14-foot fence surrounding the jail.

Helen Goin was reported suffering from a severe back injury, and her partner from a sprained ankle and back injury.

A third woman in the ward, Elsie Martin, refused to join in the break.

Tying sheets together, the women slid down the makeshift rope with blankets thrown over their shoulders. They had fled the grounds when their escape was discovered by Matrons Mae O'Shea and Julia Mulcahy.

Two miles away they met a ranchhand. They told him they had been dumped from an automobile, and the ranchhand was driving them to a taxicab when they were halted by Chief of Police William Maer and Officer Jack McLean.

S. F. Plans Election On Garbage Problem

Whether San Francisco will continue to dump its garbage in San Mateo county—providing of course it can get a permit to do so—or incinerate the refuse will be decided in an election in November, the bay city board of supervisors decided last night after a six-hour hearing on garbage disposal bids.

Decision to let the voters decide on a declaration of policy on how they want their garbage treated came upon request of Supervisor Uhl.

The question will go on the ballot in the form of a proposal to the people to decide whether they will approve a bond issue or some other proposition for incineration or something else which will dispose of garbage.

Bids, which the board did not consider yesterday, to dispose of the refuse, will be considered next Monday.

Injuries in Taxicab Bring $1,650 Award

For injuries sustained when he was tossed about in a taxicab making a quick stop in Burlingame, D. A. Rosher was today awarded $1650 damages by Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt. Rosher had sued D. Davidson, driver, and Oscar Hansen, owner of the Checker Cab Company, for $25,000 for the injuries, sustained January 25.

Attorney Kirk LaShelle Jr. represented Rosher in the suit, which Judge McNutt heard without a jury.

Coin Device 'Mention' Due at Jury Hearing

While the slot machine and garbage situations in San Mateo county might be "mentioned," only routine matters were to be acted upon in the grand jury's meeting in the courthouse today, Floyd Tower, foreman, said just before the jury went into closed session in the courthouse, from which it had not emerged this afternoon, except for luncheon.

Year-end reports and consideration of employing auditors to go over the county's books were to occupy the meeting, Tower said.

The jury ends its work June 30 and at that time will render its annual report, Tower said.

"Of course I'll come ... How nice of you to Telephone!"
HOW nice it is to know that those who like you can get in touch with you—
That good news about a position or a business transaction can easily reach you—
That you are a part of your world!
Nothing does so much for so little as a telephone. It simply doesn't pay to be without one.
